THE ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION

BYLAWS

(As amended and restated November 3, 2022)

FOREWORD

The Rockefeller Foundation (the “corporation”) as now constituted is a corporation resulting from the consolidation, pursuant to the Membership Corporations Law of the State of New York, of The Rockefeller Foundation, a corporation created by Special Act of the legislature of the State of New York (Chapter 488 of the Laws of 1913, approved May 14, 1913), and The Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial, a corporation incorporated under the Membership Corporations Law of the State of New York on October 9, 1918.

The consolidation of the two corporations in accordance with an agreement for consolidation was approved on January 3, 1929, by an order of the Supreme Court of the State of New York and a certified copy of the order was filed with the Secretary of State of the State of New York on the same date.

TRUSTEES

Section 1. The board of trustees of the corporation (the “board”) shall consist of not fewer than 10 members. The “entire board” as that phrase is used herein shall mean the number of trustees elected as of the most recently held election of trustees.

Section 2. The president shall serve as an ex officio trustee with full voting rights and shall count toward quorum. No salaried officer of the corporation other than the president shall be eligible to serve as a trustee.

Section 3. Trustees, other than the board chair, shall be elected at the annual meeting each year. A trustee may be reelected subject to the following term limits, but shall have no right to be reelected. A trustee may serve for only ten full consecutive one-year terms, except in the case of the board chair, the president and a trustee for whom the board makes a determination of exceptional circumstances that necessitate additional consecutive terms of service, where such additional terms further significant interests of the corporation. All other trustees who serve for the ten-term limit shall not be eligible for reelection for at least two years.

Section 4. The absence of a trustee from three consecutive meetings of the board shall be deemed to be a resignation by such trustee, effective as of the date of such third meeting, unless the board determines otherwise.

Section 5. At any meeting of the board an existing or anticipated vacancy in the place of a trustee may be filled by the board, effective immediately or prospectively on a date fixed by the board.

Section 6. The vote of a majority of the entire board shall be necessary to elect a trustee or to make a determination of exceptional circumstances under Section 3.

BOARD MEETINGS

Section 7. Regular meetings of the board may be held on such dates and at such times and places as set by the secretary, subject to approval of the board. The annual meeting of the board shall be held in the second calendar quarter of each year. A special meeting of the board may be called, and the date, time and place of the meeting shall be set, by the board chair, the president or any three trustees.

Section 8. The secretary shall give to each trustee not less than ten days' written notice of the time and place of each annual and regular meeting of the board, and shall give two days' written notice of special meetings.

Section 9. At the annual meeting of the board the president and the treasurer shall present the annual financial report required by Section 519 of the New York Not-for-Profit Corporation Law or any successor statute. The report shall be filed with the minutes of the annual meeting.

Section 10. A majority of the entire board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at meetings of the board. Except as required by law or these bylaws, all matters shall be decided by a majority vote of the trustees present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. In the absence of a quorum at the time and place set for a meeting of the board, the trustees present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present.

Section 11. Any one or more of the trustees may participate in a meeting of the board by means of conference telephone, videoconference, or other communications equipment as long as all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall be deemed presence in person at the meeting.

Section 12. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board may be taken without a meeting, if all the trustees consent to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action. Consent may be written or electronic. If written, the consent must be executed by the trustee by signing such consent or causing his or her signature to be affixed to such consent by any reasonable means, including but not limited to facsimile signature. If electronic, the transmission of the consent must be sent by electronic mail and set forth or be submitted with information from which it can reasonably be determined that the transmission was authorized by the trustee. The resolution and the consents thereto shall be filed with the minutes of the board.

OFFICERS OF THE CORPORATION

Section 13. The officers of the corporation shall include a board chair, a president, a chief operating officer, a secretary, a treasurer, a chief investment officer, a general counsel, and a chief financial officer. The officers may also include such assistant secretaries, assistant general counsels, assistant treasurers or other officers as shall be deemed appropriate to carry out the business of the corporation. All officers of the corporation shall be elected by the board. Officers other than the board chair and president shall be elected upon recommendation of the president. Between meetings of the board, the president may appoint acting officers of the corporation (other than a board chair and a president), subject to election by the board at its next meeting. Any officer whose duties and powers are not described in these bylaws shall have such duties and powers as the board or the president shall determine, as the case may be. The president may appoint vice presidents, directors, managing directors, deputy directors, associate directors, assistant directors, program officers, or other staff, who shall not be officers of the corporation, as determined necessary to carry out the programs and administrative operations of the corporation.

Section 14. The board chair shall be elected for a term of five years and may be reelected for up to five additional one-year terms. All other officers shall be elected for an indefinite term and hold office at the pleasure of the board.

Section 15. The president's compensation shall be set by the board on recommendation of the executive committee. The salaries and other compensation of the other officers of the corporation shall be subject to a reasonableness review and set by the executive committee unless otherwise determined by the board. Salaries and other compensation of any executive vice president appointed by the President shall be subject to a reasonableness review and the salaries and compensation of each such executive vice president shall be reported to the Executive Committee on an annual basis.

BOARD CHAIR

Section 16. The board chair, when present, shall preside at all meetings of the board. In the absence of the board chair the trustees present shall appoint one of their own number, other than the president, to preside. The board chair shall be a member ex officio, with the right to vote, of all committees of the board and of the investment committee. No employee of the corporation may serve as board chair.

PRESIDENT

Section 17. The president shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation, responsible to the board for the administration of the corporation's business and affairs. Except as otherwise provided in these bylaws or by resolution of the board, the president shall sign for the corporation all deeds, memoranda of understanding, powers of attorney and other formal instruments. The president shall be a member ex officio, with the right to vote, of the investment committee and of all committees of the board except the audit committee. In the absence or disability of the president, a vice president or other officer designated by the board shall have the powers and duties of the president.

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Section 18. The chief operating officer shall have such duties as may be assigned by the president.

SECRETARY

Section 19. The secretary shall give or cause to be given notice, as provided in these bylaws, of all meetings of the board and its committees, shall prepare or cause to be prepared, under the direction of the president, dockets of the business to be transacted at these meetings and shall record and keep or cause to be recorded and kept the minutes of these meetings, provided that the chief investment officer may record or cause to be recorded the minutes of meetings of the investment committee, in which case the chief investment officer shall transmit or cause to be transmitted such minutes to the secretary to be filed and retained with the corporate records. The secretary shall have the custody of the corporate seal and shall have the authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it, and when so affixed, to attest it. The secretary shall in general perform all duties incident to the office of secretary and shall perform such other administrative duties as the president or the board may direct.
