

Guidance: Key Project Lead Bios

Grant proposals must include a detailed list of key personnel involved with the execution of the grant project including biographies outlining the skills and expertise of each individual.

Bios should be about half a page and include relevant expertise that justifies a person's role on project.

Sample Format

(First Name) (Last Name) is (Title) at (Organization Name).

A short bio should be entered here, about half a page. Please obtain this bio from the Principal Investigator themselves, or another primary source (preferably not Wikipedia). Include details as to their experience and expertise that justifies them as being qualified for the project and the work to be assigned to them.
